Service to the NACA Board of Directors is important because: It is important for me to give back to the Association that has been so instrumental in my professional development. I am at a stage in my career and volunteer history where I feel my experiences are valuable as we set the Association's direction for the coming years.

—STEVE RANSOM

Service to the NACA Board of Directors is important because the volunteers are the lifeblood of NACA and we need as many new and creative thinkers on the NACA Board of Directors as possible.

—CHRIS GILL

I ran for the Board of Directors because I thought it would be a great opportunity to learn about the association from a different perspective. I felt that there were things that needed to be changed and/or improved for the associate members and wanted to see if I could make a difference!

—SUE BOXRUD

I ran for the Board of Directors because it was an opportunity for me to give back to the Association as well as grow as a professional in our field. The education that I have received has far exceeded the time that it has taken.

WE SAVED
YOU A SEAT

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
APPLICATION INFORMATION

Like most NACA members, you've probably attended an NACA regional conference, summer workshop or National Convention and witnessed, firsthand, the many benefits of being an NACA member. You can take a seat at the table, and help chart the course of the association as a member of the NACA Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors is a dedicated group of staff, students and associates who provide leadership to NACA and are responsible for the overall strategic direction, effectiveness and financial stability of the Association. Members of the Board of Directors are selected through an application and election process.

If you're interested in and committed to the future of the Association, apply for the Board of Directors today – we saved you a seat!

I ran for the NACA Board of Directors because I wanted to have a more active role in NACA that would allow me to be a voice for all students involved in the association, working to ensure that their ideas and needs continue to be recognized and addressed today, tomorrow, and into the future.

—MAURA MCCOOL

Becoming a member of the NACA Board of Directors:

- Provides you with an opportunity to shape NACA's future direction
- Enables you to network on a national level with likeminded professionals
- Set the agenda and shape the student activities profession for professional peers

Service to the NACA Board of Directors is important because NACA plays a significant role in shaping the campus activities profession. Our contributions as Board members and volunteers helps sustain and support and grow and develop the profession.

—KEN BRILL

I ran for the NACA Board of Directors because I wanted to continue to help NACA become the best association it could be for its members and I wanted to continue to develop my own leadership abilities. It was a great opportunity to really learn the meaning of thinking strategically as well as how to be an effective manager of volunteers. It has been a terrific experience.
