

HOST: DULCE SLOANLos Angeles

Offering a fresh and honest perspective that's rare to find, Dulcé Sloan is the winner of the 2016 Big Sky Comedy Festival. She was recently honored as the 2015 NBC Stand Up Showcase Winner and as a 2015 Montreal Just For Laughs New Face. A favorite among audiences, she was voted runner-up of Atlanta's 2015 Laughing Skull Comedy Festival. She made her late-night debut this year on "Late with Conan O'Brien" and her daytime debut as a "Comedian You Should Know" on "The Steve Harvey Show." She can be seen this fall on "Acting Out" on MTV and "Comedy Knock Out" on truTV. Dulcé's signature sass and confidence drives her hilarious views on everything from her personal relationships to the absurdities of society.

CANDICE THOMPSONLos Angeles

Candice Thompson is a comedian/writer/actor who was born in Queens, raised in Cincinnati, and currently resides in Los Angeles. She's the perfect mix of both East and West coasts with just the wrong amount of Midwest street cred. Candice comes from an ethnically mixed family with both of her parents being of African-American and Native American descent, but often gets mistaken for just plain old white. Candice's comedy has often made people squirm in their seats and, most recently, has gotten her ejected from a wedding, but it's her edgy vs. adorable factor that keeps crowds begging for more. Candice wants to thank her friends and family for all their support, but most of all, she wants to thank God for making her better than everybody.

ISMAEL LOUTFIAtlanta

Ismael Loutfi is a sweet boy with a kind face. He's been called "gifted," "quick-witted," and a "neurotic toe-rag" by numerous friends' parents. Underneath that sweetness lies a deeply acerbic sense of humor - the sort of thing you might develop growing up a Muslim in rural North Florida. Now living in Atlanta, Ismael's take on Islam, racism and his own shallow insecurities quickly made him a favorite of the city's exploding comedy scene. In 2016, he placed fourth in the competitive Laughing Skull Comedy Festival. A month later, he went on to be a New Face of comedy at the Just For Laughs Comedy Festival in Montreal and was the critic's pick for Best Comic on the Verge of Superstardom by Atlanta's Creative Loafing magazine. He can be seen on the VICELAND series "Flophouse."

DANIEL WEBBAustin

Daniel Webb's stand-up has been described as energetic, electric and a "non-stop, adrenalized train." Known for a fast-paced wide-ranging set, Daniel famously garnered international attention cracking gay jokes with President Barack Obama! Daniel has appeared at The Oddball Comedy Festival (2016), Moontower Comedy and Oddity Fest (2014-2016), HOT TUB! (Los Angeles), Hell Yes Fest (New Orleans), Punchline Comedy (Seattle), Jester's Jester (London), FunFunFun FEST, Out of Bounds Comedy Festival, and the OUTsider Festival. He was also a finalist in the Funniest Person In Austin competition (2016), and a two-time semi-finalist (2014/2015).

JESSICA KEENANLos Angeles

Jessica Keenan is a Mexican/Lebanese comedian, born and raised in Las Vegas, NV. The consummate oddball, she spent her childhood making her friends and family laugh until she went into comedy professionally. Jessica stands out as one of the funniest and freshest faces on the L.A. comedy scene today. She can be seen at The Comedy Store, The Improv, Laugh Factory, Westside Comedy Theater, and on NUVOTV's "Stand Up and Deliver."

JR DE GUZMANLos Angeles

Born in the Philippines and raised in California, JR De Guzman began performing comedy while working as a music teacher, which he quickly learned just meant teaching Taylor Swift songs to teenagers. He has entertained all over the world, having performed for Stand-Up Tokyo and ROR Comedy in Japan, the Jokers Ball in Indonesia, the Badaboom Comedy Series in Amsterdam, the Edmonton Comedy Festival, and countless other international shows. Combining music and comedy, JR serenades the audience into laughter with songs, jokes and stories of traveling the world, life after college, and family. He has shared the stage with Tim Allen, Margaret Cho, Daniel Tosh, Jerrod Carmichael, Iliza Shlesinger, and more.

Busty and the Bass

@bustyandthebass

PARADIGM

Home Base: Montreal, QC

Forming within their first week at McGill University in Montreal, Busty and the Bass learned the ropes of performing together before even giving thought to their name or sound. Playing mainly house parties and covers for the next two years, Busty gained a reputation for delivering dance-filled live performances unmatched in energy and vibe. It wasn't until entering a competition run by Canada's national broadcaster, CBC, that the nine members of Busty and the Bass made a conscious shift in focus. The band changed gears from carefree performance to composing, writing a song that would be their first-ever release and their entry in the CBC competition in search of Canada's best university band. That's when Busty came to life. They won the competition and went on to self-release an EP before getting signed by Indica Records (Half Moon Run, Phantogram) later that year.

An only child from Lincoln, NE, Corey Martin Craig lived the uneventful early childhood of most Midwest kids. That all changed when, at only six years of age, Corey lost his father in a tragic accident. The next seven years found Corey acting out and getting into more than his share of trouble. Being kicked out of class became commonplace. Not until the eighth grade did Corey stumble upon the one place where his rambunctious and outspoken nature were accepted and encouraged: theatre class. Now unleashed, Corey began developing a real sense of his own artistic voice. Currently residing in Los Angeles, he is now an actor, writer, producer, motivational speaker and comic. He has appeared in "Pee-Wee's Big Holiday," "Godzilla," "Grey's Anatomy," "Shameless" and "The Guild." Born in Los Angeles, Garibaldi later moved as a youth to South Sacramento, where he learned to enjoy the use of his hands and body through art on "larger and somewhat illegal canvases" by painting graffiti as a teen. Garibaldi had always combined his passion for music and color, or rhythm and hue, in his artwork. Viewing performance painter Denny Dent's portrait of Jimi Hendrix, Garibaldi discovered his passion for paint and music could be an inspirational experience for others. He discovered music-driven-art, and in some ways it discovered him, revealing a portrait of passion and purpose. He's been an "America's Got Talent" finalist, a performer at the NBA Finals, a philanthropist who has raised over $2 million in the auctioning of his art for charity, and a central figure in the performance artist landscape. In the fall of 2013, he auditioned for NBC's three-time Emmy-winning singing competition show, "The Voice," making it to the top six. Upon auditioning, Matthew received one of the fastest four-chair turns in the show's history and was hailed for performances such as Leonard Cohen's "Hallelujah," which hit #1 on the iTunes singles charts, as well as #40 on the Billboard rock charts. Since "The Voice," Matthew has performed all over the country, opening for the likes of Diana Ross, as well as around the globe in Jamaica, South Africa and, most recently, Germany. He is featured in two films, "I'm Not Ashamed" (fall 2016) about Rachel Scott, who was murdered in the 1999 Columbine High School massacre, and "Grace Wins" (spring 2017). He is currently in the studio working on his debut EP.

Home Base: Kansas City, KS

A lifelong resident of Kansas, Mike Debus has always had a passion for drawing and painting. After graduation from college with a bachelor of fine arts degree, Mike spent a handful of years in corporate America before deciding to pursue his dream of becoming a full-time free-lance artist. Since 2001, Mike has been creating portraits, murals and countless other commissioned works. In 2008, he was asked if he would paint live on stage at a large youth conference in downtown Kansas City, MO. He accepted the challenge and found the experience exhilarating and inspiring! Since then, Mike has made performance painting his main focus. His creative mission continues as he takes his talents around the country to entertain and captivate audiences. At the end of a performance, one completed painting is presented to the organization as a gift, and two more are given so the organization can hold a raffle.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES SHOWCASE

Eight performers are selected to introduce each Mainstage and Club Showcase and to entertain the audience between acts. Through comedy and music, Master of Ceremonies attractions strengthen the overall showcase presentation and are allotted approximately 30 minutes of performance time to display their unique talents. Attractions are listed in alphabetical order, not the order in which they appear. Alternates are listed in priority order in the event that any of the Masters of Ceremonies are unable to appear. For the artists listed, pricing information includes the attraction's regular, non-Convention price, followed by Block Booking pricing. All Block Booking pricing categories indicate the base contract fee and any additional expenses required (sound, lights, room, meals and/or travel). Some states may require the withholding of taxes from contract fees paid to artists. Check with artist representative to determine if prices listed include applicable tax withholdings. NACA makes no representation regarding such withholdings.

Adam Kario

@AdamKario
Neon Entertainment
Home Base: Miami, FL

Miami-based Adam Kario certainly knows how to juggle his career. For the past two decades, he's been making audiences smile as one of the premiere professional comedy juggler entertainers. He has energized conventions, brought down the house at awards banquets and made grandpas giggle as hard as their grandkids. Adam's career in entertainment was launched at age 10 when his dad taught him how to juggle with three tennis balls. Within weeks, he performed for his fourth-grade talent show, and soon after began street performing. With razor-sharp focus and countless hours of practice, Adam won the World Juggling Championships with zero drops – the juggling equivalent of a perfect 10. Two years later, he won a second world championship – all while still a teenager. In all, Adam has commandeered thousands of shows at every imaginable venue, including NBA halftime shows, Fortune 500 companies, and cruises, as well as many television appearances.

Daniel Martin

@IamDanielMartin
Bass/Schuler Entertainment
Home Base: Detroit, MI

Daniel Martin has quickly become one of the most in-demand performers touring today. His high-energy fusion of exhilarating magic, cons and sarcastic improv continually leads to record-breaking crowds and consistent standing ovations at theaters, universities and celebrity events worldwide. Daniel was recently awarded 2016's Best Variety Artist and Best Male Performer, along with winning last year's Entertainer of the Year award from Campus Activities Magazine, which also recognizes him as the Highest Rated/Best Reviewed Act for the last two years. His award-winning magic has been seen by millions on CBS, NBC, WGN, VH1, Discovery and, most recently, in the "Top 100 Magic Moments in History" on the BBC. From his crowd-generating promo and teasers to his multiple shows for repeat schools, it's clear why Campus Activities Magazine wrote: "This is a guy who does a great job and has the evidence to back it up!"

Pete Lee

@peteleetweets

The College Agency Speakers

Home Base: New York, NY

Pete Lee might be the nicest person in New York City, but that's because it's impossible to sound aggressive with a Wisconsin accent. Pete was raised in Janesville, WI, by divorced parents and a 19-inch television, which is probably why he pursued a career in entertainment. Thanks to his highly rated "Comedy Central Presents" half-hour special, Pete has packed venues at over 500 colleges and universities across the country. He has also been a standout on NBC's "Last Comic Standing" and played a doctor on the CBS soap opera "As the World Turns." His hit YouTube series, titled "Pete Lee's Internet Freak Show," attracted the attention of television executives. He was quickly hired to be a writer and cast member on FUSE TV's "Video on Trial" and a cast member on VH1's "Best Week Ever." Pete is also fun to have dinner with at your town's Applebees.

3. Man About a Horse

@manaboutahorse

APA Music

Home Base: Philadelphia, PA

Philly's favorite bluegrass band Man About a Horse brandishes strong ties to the folk music tradition, with a progressive streak that informs their original songwriting. The band was formed in 2014 when two Philadelphia musicians discovered a shared love of bluegrass on a chance meeting at a local watering hole. The band's roster now includes some of the Northeast's best pickers. Although new on the scene, the band has grown in leaps and bounds, releasing a studio recording in 2015 ("The EP") that earned national airplay on "tastemaker" radio stations such as WXPB (Philadelphia) and WAMU Bluegrass Country (Washington, DC). The band has shared bills with the likes of Shakey Graves, Ricky Skaggs & Kentucky Thunder, and others. Their music has been featured on blogs such as "The Key," the "Random Tea Sessions," and "Ear to the Ground." The band intends to release its first full-length album in 2017.

SAMPLER SHOWCASE

These brief showcase opportunities will take place in the Lecture venue and will be performed in a round-robin format. Delegates remain in the same room for the entire duration of the Samplers. Eight artists will have five minutes to perform. There is one minute for transition. For the artists listed, pricing information includes the attraction's regular non-Convention price, followed by Block Booking pricing. All Block Booking pricing categories indicated the base contract fee and any additional expenses required (sound, lights, room, meals and/or travel). Some states may require the withholding of taxes from contract fees paid to artists. Check with artist representative to determine if prices listed include applicable tax withholdings. NACA makes no representation regarding such withholdings.

Kazu Kusano

@KazuKusano

Artists West Entertainment, LLC

Home Base: Los Angeles, CA

Japanese comedienne Kazu Kusano drops a bomb on the status quo of the perception of Asian women. Through her quirky humor, you will witness the odd experiences of a Japanese woman in 21st century America. She is the undefeated champion of Joke-E-Oke, the joke karaoke contest at the San Francisco Sketch Festival. Recently, she made her first international appearance at Asiafest in Adelaide, Australia.

Ken "Xclusive" Paryo

@KParyo

Metropolis Management & Entertainment Group

Home Base: Atlanta, GA

Raised by songwriters, Xclusive was first introduced to music through the classical piano, but he soon took a keen interest in dance and by age 17 had perfected his own freestyle form. Bringing his talent to local events, he quickly grew into quite the talented performer. Nowadays, Xclusive makes appearances on network television and tours college campuses nationwide. In 2016, he was voted Best Small Venue Performer in Campus Activities Magazine's Readers' Choice awards. This multi-talented and multi-dimensional performer utilizes physicality, inventive artistry, and pop culture to flat out entertain an audience. Xclusive has developed and seamlessly executes a one-man, three-ring circus of which he is the ringmaster. Xclusive blends his talent as a dancer with his charming sense of humor to loosen up the stiffest of audiences and make even those of us who can't dance bob our heads and smile.

Mike E. Winfield

@MikeEWinfield

KP Comedy Too

Home Base: Los Angeles, CA

You might know Mike E. Winfield as the smart-mouthed warehouse worker from NBC's "The Office" or from his new web series "Kicking It with Mike E. Winfield." Or maybe you recognized him in Andy Samberg's recent summer blockbuster "Popstar." Perhaps you saw Mike on "The Late Show with David Letterman" or his own pop culture show on the LOGO Network. Well, acting is simply fiction, but his comedy is drawn from real life, including what it's like to be married to an older woman with a son - his stepson is so close in age, he calls him "Stepman." Given that Stepman is currently attending college, Mike often finds himself immersed in college-age struggles and drama. He's a funny-looking, interesting, intelligent performer, who shines on every campus.

Rubyn Warren

@rubyncomedy

KP Comedy Too

Home Base: Denver, CO

Rubyn Warren II is one of comedy's hottest (and best-looking, if you ask him) young comedians on the scene today. A native of Portland, OR, he was born with the gift of making people laugh – proven at his first show, where he performed at the tender age of five. Being the son of a former comedian probably helped, too. At 14, he decided to get serious about comedy and honed his skills by performing at serious venues, like school fairs and churches. It all paid off. Last year, Rubyn recorded an appearance on "Laff Mob's We Got Next" for the Aspire TV Network. A Millennial with a bright future, he finds humor in simple truths, common life experiences, and obvious-in-hindsight observations.

6. The Icarus Account

@icarusaccount

DMS, Inc.

Home Base: Jupiter Beach, FL

The brothers Ty and Trey are living their dream as professional musicians writing songs that strike an emotional chord with their listeners. They've learned a lot about writing and performing, but ultimately the goal has never changed. "We try to write songs that are honest and relatable," Trey shares. "One of the most beautiful things about writing songs is that it proves how connected all of us really are. We get messages all the time where people tell us that our songs 'say everything they are feeling but didn't know how to express.' To me it's really humbling because I've never met that person before and yet they are feeling the same feelings that we had when we wrote the song." The duo continues to pursue this passion of moving an audience. It's writing with that same purpose and passion that makes each of their albums feel new and unique.

1. Headphone Disco

@headphonedisco

Degy Dance

Home Base: Multiple Cities

Headphone Disco are the inventors of the "silent dance party" format and have been touring the world for the past seven years. Performing some huge college shows led to them being voted Best Novelty Act by the readers of Campus Activities Magazine, among many other awards. So how does it work? 1. We arrive at your school (or showcase!) with our two resident DJs and our two- or three-channel wireless headphones 2. Our DJs spin two different styles of music side by side over two different wireless channels. 3.

Guests select which DJ they want to listen to using the switch on their headphones (provided by us), then get busy on the dance floor. Imagine a dance floor where one half of the crowd are singing along to One Direction while the other half are doing The Wobble! It's bizarre and mind-blowing, but most of all, a huge amount of fun.
